The review must be led by a person who is not employed by a public safety agency that incurred reimbursable expenses or participated in the response to the event.

(b) The review required under paragraph (a) must be a structured review, including debriefing persons who responded to the public safety event, that analyzes the response to the public safety event. The review must address but is not limited to the following topics:

(1) the applicant's expectations;

(2) a summary of events and the duties performed by those who responded to the public safety event, including the strategies deployed;

(3) the number of citizens and public safety personnel injured or killed in the event and, to the extent known, the cause of the injuries or deaths;

(4) a summary of the damage to property that resulted from the event;

(5) an evaluation of the performance of those who responded to the event and the strategies deployed, including a description of successful facets of the response; and

(6) recommendations for improving or strengthening the strategies, policies, rules, and statutes that were involved in the response to the public safety event.

(c) An after-action review report must be submitted to the chair of the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board's Ensuring Police Excellence and Improving Community Relations Advisory Council no later than 60 days after an applicant receives reimbursement under this section. The applicant may withhold or redact any information that would compromise the safety of public safety officers or compromise future responses to public safety events.

(d) Upon submission of an after-action report that satisfies the requirements of this subdivision, the commissioner shall reimburse an applicant for the cost of the after-action review and report."

"Sec. 2. [626.8476] PUBLIC ASSEMBLY RESPONSE; POLICIES REQUIRED; APPLICATION.

Subdivision 1. Model policy required. By December 15, 2021, the board, in consultation with the legislative councils of color, the American Civil Liberties Union, community organizations that lead direct action campaigns, the Minnesota Chiefs of Police Association, the Minnesota Sheriffs' Association, the Minnesota Police and Peace Officers Association, and other interested parties, must develop a comprehensive model policy on responding to public assemblies. The policy must be based on best practices in public gathering management drawn from both domestic and international sources. The board must distribute the model policy to all chief law enforcement officers.

Subd. 2. Agency policies required. (a) By March 15, 2022, the chief law enforcement officer of every state and local law enforcement agency must establish and enforce a written policy that is identical or substantially similar to the board's model policy described in subdivision 1.

(b) Every state and local law enforcement agency must certify to the board that it has adopted a written policy in compliance with this subdivision.

(c) The board must assist the chief law enforcement officer of each state and local law enforcement agency in developing and implementing policies under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. Application. Each chief law enforcement officer and peace officer must comply with the public assembly response policy adopted by the officer's department pursuant to this section even while working in a joint law enforcement environment or outside of the officer's primary jurisdiction.

Subd. 4. Peace officer standards of conduct; public assembly response policy violations. A peace officer who fails to comply with the officer's department's public assembly response policy is in violation of the peace officer standards of conduct maintained by the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board pursuant to section 626.843, subdivision 1, clause (6). The board must revise the peace officer standards of conduct maintained in rule to incorporate this requirement.

Subd. 5. Compliance reviews authorized. The board has authority to inspect state and local law enforcement agency policies to ensure compliance with subdivision 2. The board may conduct this inspection based upon a complaint it receives about a particular agency or through a random selection process. The board may impose licensing sanctions and seek injunctive relief under section 214.11 for an agency's failure to comply with subdivision 2."

"Sec. 4. PEACE OFFICER STANDARDS AND TRAINING BOARD; APPROPRIATION.

$...... in fiscal year 2022 is appropriated from the general fund to the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board to develop the model policy required under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.8476."

A House concurrent resolution adopting deadlines for the 2021 regular session.

Be It Resolved, by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, the Senate concurring:

In accordance with Joint Rule 2.03, the deadlines in this resolution apply to the 2021 regular session.

(1) The first deadline, March 12, 2021, at 11:59 p.m., is for committees to act favorably on bills in the house of origin.

(2) The second deadline, March 19, 2021, at 6:00 p.m., is for committees to act favorably on bills, or companions of bills, that met the first deadline in the other house.

(3) The third deadline, April 9, 2021, at 11:59 p.m., is for committees to act favorably on major appropriation and finance bills.

Any bills acted on by a House Committee or acted on by a Senate Committee other than those exempted in Joint Rule 2.03 after the second deadline must be referred to the House Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration for disposition.

Either the House Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration or the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration, when reporting a bill referred to the committee in accordance with Joint Rule 2.03 and this resolution, may waive the application of the Rule and resolution to subsequent actions on that bill by other committees.

Winkler moved that House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 was adopted.
